Retirement News

We wish Caroline Mariner health, wealth and happiness as she retires from Iwade School after 15 years of dedicated service. Caroline started at Iwade as deputy headteacher in January 2005 having been a primary school teacher in Hampshire, Surrey, Medway and Kent since leaving teacher training college. When Katrina Ware took up the headship at Iwade in January 2006, a new and successful partnership was formed. With the creation of the federation between Bobbing Village school and Iwade, Caroline took the reins as Head of School and then with the creation of Timu Academy Trust, as School Principal. With the team here at Iwade, Caroline has created a harmonious school. She has a great sense of fun and is as committed now, as she was at aged 21, to each and every child achieving their very best. Caroline leaves Iwade School in a much better place than when she arrived. Results are ever improving year on year and we will all miss her. Caroline hopes to spend more quality time with her husband, two daughters and two granddaughters.

Governance

The chair of the Trust Board Angela Edwards has decided that her tenure should come to an end at the end of this term. We thank her for her time on the Trust Board. Mr Simon Adcock one of our current trustees has been elected as chair from September.

We also wish Stephen Plumb all the very best as he moves from Iwade into a new challenge in London. We thank him for his support and commitment to Iwade School and we will miss him on the local governing body.

We always need new governors to join either the Timu Academy Trust Board or our Local Governing Bodies. If you feel you want to be a part of our team and make a difference in our schools please get in touch.

And Finally.....

On behalf of the directors and staff of Timu Academy Trust we wish you a great Summer holiday. Let's hope this great weather doesn't disappear as soon as school is out. We return to school on Monday 3 September 2018.
