Ancient Egyptians

Octopus, Owl, Scotney, Willow

Below is a list of home learning activities. This term we would like you to complete four of the activities below (at least one of which must be writing based). These need to be returned to school by the end of term, although they can come in before, as and when they are completed.

Using your sketching techniques, including shading, draw a portrait of an Egyptian Pharaoh.	Write a diary entry from an Ancient Egyptian worker describing the work they have been doing and how they feel.	Create a blueprint and design of your choice for tomb fit to bury an Egyptian Pharaoh in the Valley of the kings.	Write an Egyptian themed story with the title 'King Tut returns'.	Design a set of clothing for Queen Cleopatra that uses traditional Egyptian patterns or symbols.
Create a comic strip showing the events described in the Ancient Egyptian creation myth.	Research and create, using your choice of materials, an Ancient Egyptian soul house.	Make a power point about an aspect Ancient Egyptian life that you have not yet studied.	Write your own magical protection spell from 'The book of the Dead' in hieroglyphics.	Create an Ancient Egyptian death-mask using your choice of materials.

As well as these, the expectations for Reading remain that same. Children should read at home to an adult at least three times per week (ideally 5). Please record and sign their Reading Record after each read.

Multiplication Tables remain a focus. In your year group, children should be learning all of their multiplication tables.

Although we will not have multiplication tables home learning, children will be assessed on their multiplication tables each week. This may be orally, as part of a game or in a written format.

P.E timetable may be subject to change, though it will remain at 2 sessions per week.

Please ensure your children has kit available.

As we work our way through winter, please be mindful that children will still be going outside for their P.E sessions so plain grey and black jogging bottoms are a very good idea!
